

I earnestly appeal to your sense of free marketing to not succumb to the pressures of lobbyists concerning the efforts to stop XM radio from broadcasting Weax and traffic in addition to the myriad of other opportunities that a satellite based system has to offer. This competition is at the core of the free enterprise system. Involvement of government to prevent this kind of innovative programming is inappropriate and unnecessary. Thanks,
Bob Whitkop